

Udaipur's Gandhian School for Tribal Girls

Founded in the Thirties at Mahatma Gandhi's request, Udaipur's Mahila Mandal has educated tens of thousands of tribal and impoverished girls from the region's most disadvantaged communities. Today this inspiring school continues to pioneer the social frontier and is now starting to train its 1500 strong K~12 student body in environmental wisdom as well as trades and academic skills.